It was suggested that those members who have not returned this fall be contacted by phone to let them know that they are missed and we hope they come out and curl with us again.

Moved by Rhea McKane, seconded by Connie Grosvenor, that the financial report be accepted. CARRIED

Don Critchley is in charge of ordering the meals for the Christmas banquet; we will order Chinese food again. Rhea McKane will purchase desserts. Noel Arbic is in charge of coffee and Timbits. Curlers will be asked to bring a donation for the food bank.

8. Closing Banquet and Presentations

Coffee and Timbits will be available on the last day of the Joe Gubbels Funspiel. Trophies will be ready for presentation.

Bill Vane will provide the name of a caterer who recently did a buffet-style meal for $10/person. This option will be investigated for the closing banquet.

9. Over 80 Club

Ben Comisso will turn 80 this year. Rhea will check to ensure that Frank Parisi's name is on the list.

10. Dusty Baker Bonspiel

Ray Schizkoske reviewed the rules for the Dusty Baker and Joe Gubbels bonspiels. Several changes were made, and the revised rules will be posted and be printed on our brochures for the Dusty Baker bonspiel.

11. Wednesday Curling League

The existing rules will remain in effect for this league.

12. George Coupland

Bill Vane is in charge of a plaque to honor George, who is the only remaining founding member of our league. He requested that we obtain a better picture of George for this plaque, as the one he has is not suitable.

13. Absence of President

Ray advised that he may be absent for three weeks in February, and asked for assistance in running the league during that time.

14. Next Executive Meeting

An executive meeting will be scheduled prior to the Joe Gubbels Funspiel to set the agenda for the General Meeting. An announcement will be made at the Christmas banquet that members should bring any concerns or suggestions to the attention of an Executive Member so it can be included in the General Meeting agenda. It was decided by the Executive that anyone who wishes a motion to be discussed at the General Meeting will present that motion themselves.

15. Other

There were no other items for discussion.

16. Adjournment

Moved by Art Mousley, that the meeting be adjourned 1:12 p.m.
